

PEERD

Program for External Evaluation of Research Development

The PEERD expert application form, along with a C.V., are due to PEERD@nordp.org by August 31, 2023 at 5:00 p.m. EST. Applicants must strictly adhere to all word limits. Brevity is not only appreciated, but admired. The PEERD review committee decisions will be made by mid-September 2023. PEERD Experts will serve from October 1, 2023 to September 30, 2026. Any inquiries should be directed to PEERD@nordp.org.

Name:

Number of Years in RD/Number of Years Supporting Researchers:

NORDP Region:

Current Institution & Institutional Characteristics (e.g., R1, MSI, etc.):

Past Institutions & Institutional Characteristics:

Bio (200-word limit):

Education:

Past RD and Program Evaluation Experience (Describe any experience in research development, program evaluation, data collection and analysis, and presentations/workshops; 500-word limit):

Experience with Diverse Institutions and Faculty (describe substantive experience and professional engagement with emerging research institutions, minority-serving institutions, community colleges, and best practices for research development programs that contribute to broadening participation in STEM; 200-word limit):

NORDP Involvement (Describe any service to and leadership in NORDP; Please Note: While conference presentations are highly valuable to the organization, they do not in and of themselves constitute active support of the organization or demonstrate an individual has knowledge of how NORDP operates and how its mission is served; 200-word limit):

Certifications and Training (Describe any certifications and/or training that you incorporate into your research development work. This may include specific certifications and/or training or development opportunities focused on enhancing empathy and interpersonal skills; 100-word limit):