

Maximizing Potential with Minimal Resources

4th Annual NORDP
May 21-23, 2012

Robin Miskimins
Director of Faculty and Research Development
University of South Dakota

How can small institutions compete for funding?

University expectations are high

What can research development at a small institution be?

Panelists

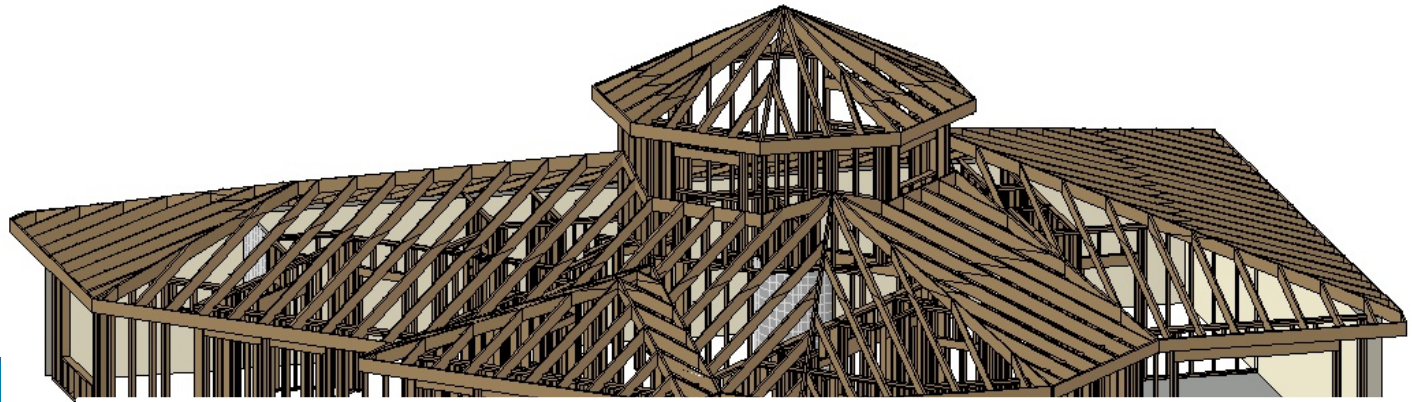

*Susan Carter, University of California, Merced; 2 person department

*Beth Keithly, University of Texas at Dallas; 1 person department

*Robin Miskimins, University of South Dakota; 1 person in Health Affairs, 0 at USD

Current structure- USD

- * Approximately 10,000 students
- * 590 faculty members
- * FY11 had 206 awards totaling $38.1M
 - 51% for research
 - 53% from federal sources (mostly NIH)
- * Desire to be more research intensive

Current Programs

Infrastructure grants

COBRE

INBRE

Junior Faculty mentoring

BBS-PERM

