What you will do:

One or more volunteers will work with the NORDP Program for External Evaluation of Research Development (PEERD) chairperson to develop and manage the PEERD communications plan. This will include working with the chairperson to develop content for blog posts and working with the marketing group to post regularly on the NORDP blog. Ideally, blog posts will occur monthly through 2020. In addition, the volunteer(s) will be responsible for posting information on the program via social media platforms. Finally, the volunteer(s) will be responsible for distributing information (collateral) to strategic partners and other interested parties as needed.

What you will need to bring to the role:

We are looking for one or more individuals who are passionate about learning about and communicating the value of the PEERD program to the NORDP membership and the public. This individual(s) will have a clear understanding of how social networking works and can amplify messaging.

How often will you be asked to volunteer:

This person(s) will meet monthly for up to two hours with the PEERD chairperson, Dr. Kay Tindle, to develop a workplan. The work of the volunteer(s) will take approximately 2 – 4 hours per month, distributed across the month. Effort will scale depending on the number of volunteers over time.

How long you will volunteer:

We hope that the volunteers will commit to at least a year and up to two years.
